

"alone we are but twisting, unraveled threads, but together we weave the glory and splendor of the wide world itself."

-anonymous

THE KANDINSKY TRIO

and Special Guest

Oscar-nominated actor & folk music legend

THEODORE BIKEL

with the

ROANOKE COLLEGE CHILDREN'S CHOIR

in tapestry

Stories, Yarns & Musical Traditions

Classical music selections & the ethnic folk songs that inspired them
Irish • Scottish • Afro-American • Spanish • Yiddish • Eastern European Gypsy

From There to Here: true stories from native lands come home to Roanoke

The 1,000th performance of the Kandinsky Trio

All woven into one magnificent and unforgettable evening.

If you are a lover of music, theatre and the stories that bring us together, come witness the creation of Tapestry

October 7, 2004 8:00pm
Jefferson Center

Tickets: $35/$25 Jefferson Center Box Office
540.345.2550 or toll-free 866.345.2550 www.jeffcenter.org